- Portability: If you retire or change jobs, you may still be able to take your coverage with you at an affordable rate. Eligibility may be based on your health.

- Waiver of Premium: If included in your plan, premium payments are waived if you become disabled.

1 Spouse and dependent coverage will not be effective if they are currently totally disabled. Being totally disabled means the inability to perform two or more activities of daily living, being confined to a hospital or similar institution, or being unable to attend school outside the home (for a dependent child age 5 up to age 26). In ID, NH and TX, the definition of total disability does not include Activities of Daily Living (ADL) requirements. The ability to work does not determine disability. You can pay premiums on insurance for your dependents with no health questions asked. Coverage isn't effective until the earlier of the date they are no longer totally disabled or two years after the date that coverage would have otherwise become effective for the spouse or dependent child. This provision does not apply to newborn children born while dependent insurance is in effect.

2 In WA, minimum face amount available is $25,000.

3 The maximum benefit is 50% of your benefit in NE.

4 Terminal illness means an injury or sickness that results in the covered person having a life expectancy of 12 months or less and from which there is no reasonable prospect of recovery. A life expectancy of 24 months or less in IL, KS, MA, TX and WA.
